Seldom in the history of the town has so many idle people been seen about the place. Both mills are giving employment to a large number of townsmen, but there have so many come to town recently to secure work. Heading this list comes the Polanders and Hungarians, of whom more than one hundred have come here within the last two weeks. These idle people are rapidly leaving now, as a glance at the Ohio River railroad freight trains, which are made up at the Riverside Iron Works, will show. As high as fifteen persons have been seen aboard one freight train

A fellow created considerable disturbance yesterday near the Drover's Home, in the upper town. He was a big chubby fellow, who came in to see the Fair, and was pretty well tanked up. He got before an uptown street car and refused to move. He made faces at the operator till the car was stopped, when he got aboard. Some difficulty was experienced in collecting his fare. The street car employes had more trouble getting him off the car than on, as he insisted on riding to the Fair grounds right where he sat.

The well-known House & Hermann base ball team of this place is being reorganized. Though the boys have made a good record this season, they think that by reorganizing more effective playing can be done. Next Sunday afternoon on the Riverside grounds this club will play the Red Cross Oil Club, draw a large crowd.

Recently Isaac McCue, of the Island, Wheeling, was given the contract for the carpenter work of the new M. E. Church. Mr. McCue is moving his famfly here and will make this city his The foundation for the new church has been completed, and when finished the structure will cost $12,000.

Piles for the Terminal railroad extension are now driven as far as the Boggs Run road. The ground in that locality is now quite soggy and the rapidity of the work is much detarded on this account. Below the road mentioned there will be comparatively little piling before the Riverside plant is

A painting in the show window of J. P. Borger's jewelry store, on Main street, is attracting general attention. The painting is an oil one, the work of Mr. Borger himself, who is quite an artist. Quite an interesting social event at the home of Miss Cora Edwards is being not long ago, and as no trace of the animal has been found it is the belief that it was stolen. There are a good many suspicious characters loitering about in plaster. Their pretentions are unthat locality.

Last Tuesday afternoon there was an interesting game of baseball played on the Riverside grounds. The clubs were the M. & W. Deggans, of this place, and the Moundsville team. The score was 15 to 4 in favor of the Moundsville

George Jones, known everywhere as "Hunk," has arrived in town after a long trip. For a time before his return he was at Ashland, Kv. Few peopls in Benwood are known so well as "Hunk."

Strober, a workman at the lower mill, was married. Mr. Strober was not married, and is indignant at the unjust treatment.

Miss Mary Haley and her aunt, Miss Ella Coffee, of Pike street, are home from an extended visit to St. Louis, Mo. C. N. Kunhault and Miss Rosella Lindsay started for the Columbian Exposition yesterday. Miss Annie Shepherd, after a month's visit to Ironton, O., has returned to her home.

Charles Landkrohn has charge of a force of men placing curbing along Mc-Mechen street.

A good sized array of Benwood people attended the State Fair at Wheeling yesterday. Mrs. J. N. McDonald is home from a visit to her former home in Wellsburg. Wm. Bennett and lady, of Beaver, Pa., are at the home of J. P. Barger. George Miller, the genial barber, is visiting friends in Martin's Ferry. Miss Eila Springer will leave in a few days for a trip to the World's Fair.

Marshall Gocke is home from a pleasure trip down the river.

John Schick, of Bellaire, is clerking in Schick's pharmacy.

Business still continues to increase steadily in town. Dr. McDonald is suffering from an indisposition. Dr. J. K. N. Piper is home from a trip up the river.

George Burkis is home from the World's Fair. Harry Bowers has moved to Water street. The Hope Society will meet to-night.

ROMNEY, W. VA., September 5 .-Hon. James D. Armstrong died here last night at 8 o'clock. He had been in feeble health for some years, and, though a great shock to the community, his death was not unexpected by those who knew him best. His wife, a daughter of the late Dr. Wm. Foot, for fifty years pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place, survives him, though in feeble health. The family of the Armstrong's was once very numerously represented here, though the Judge is the last of the name in Hampshire county. A deep sense of personal loss fills every heart.

James D. Armstrong was born of Scotch-Irish stock in this country about 73 years ago, and since early manhood has served his people in Various useful capacities. In early life he joined the Presbyterian church, and for most of his long and spotless life he has been a member of the session and taken a most active part in all the work of the church. He was admitted to the bar at an early age; and served as prosecuting attorney before the war. He also represented the county in both branches of the Virginia Legislature before the war, and sat as a delegate from this section in the Virginia legislature during the troublesome times of the war. After the war he resumed the practice of law in Hampshire, and was elected to the convention that framed the present constitution of the State in 1872.

Later he was one of the three prominent candidates for the office of Judge of the Circuit, Jas. Allan, of Moorefield, and Col. Robert White, now of Wheeling, being the other two. Armstrong and White withdrew in favor of Allan, thus securing the election of the latter, and at the death of Judge Allan, Mr. Armstrong succeeded him, and was on the bench till April, '92, when he resigned on account of failing health, and funeral of Judge Armstrong will probably take place to-morrow or Thursday. Gov. MacCorkle and party are still fishing in the South Branch. They will of Wheeling. This game will doubtless probably return to town to-day. The Governor expects to visit the schools for the deaf and the blind before leaving the neighborhood.

HUNTINGTON, W. WA., September 6 .-A dry boiler was the cause of the destruction of life and property on Hart's creek, in Lincoln county, 40 miles south of this city and in the notorious Brumfield region, on last Monday morning. The boiler was connected with a grist mill owned by Al Brumfield, and blew up while a number of men and women were about the boiler, injuring most of them. Mrs. Brumfield, the wife of Al Brumfield, was struck by a piece of flying debris in the hip, causing a fracture of the bone known as the femur, and it was reported to-night that she was dying from the effects of her injuries.

STATES-Strong. RAILROADS-Moderately active. STOCKS.-The material advances made in the prices of securities at the Exchange the last two business days, based hough they were upon more solid founda tions than are usually to be found at the bottom of speculative movements, induced the bear element to make advances upon the bull forces this morning. The absence of any large foreign orders and the weakness of American railways in the London market also helped to unsteady the dealings and had it not been for the generally favorable condition and the strength of the bull pool the reactionary influences would not have been so successfully checked as they were. As is usual when the bears take the offensive, rumors affecting the stocks to be attacked are at once set affoat and today was no exception to the rule. After a morning decline, which went through the entire active list, there was an afternoon rally in which not alone was the decline recovered, but in many instances higher figures were made. In the late dealings prices fluctuated on narrow quotations, the tone of the market being unsettled, and so it closed, the leading securities mainly showing a decline on the day. Sales 319,500. CHICAGO, September 6 .- A spirited advance in grain occurred to-day on buying orders coming from no one knows where, but sufficiently heavy to give the shorts a complete fright. The trade naturally looked for manipulation to account for the bulge. It centered on Ream. He had bulge. It centered on Ream. He had made losses on the short side and during made losses on the short side and during the day was thought to be manipulating on the bull side. He had behind him, it is said, Orr, Mitchell, Driver, McDougall, Champlain, Lester and one or two big commission houses.
